Objective

Marketing Data Analyst combining 3 years of hands-on Meta Ads campaign management with strong data analytics skills (Power BI, survey design, SQL, Python). I turn marketing questions into data-backed answers: designing market research, analyzing the results, and translating them into campaign strategy, content direction, and business decisions. Comfortable owning both sides of the loop, running the campaign and reading the data that proves it worked.

HSam Academy

This dual-platform role required balancing distinct audiences and content strategies (professional/technical trainings vs. language learning) under a single, consistent brand voice and reporting framework.

HSam Medico – Market Research & Needs Assessment

2026 / Data Collection, Power BI Analysis & Marketing Strategy

Designed and led a full market-research study among future doctors, pharmacists, and dentists to validate demand and shape the launch of HSam Medico, a new HSam Academy branch dedicated to medical education.

- ▶ Data Collection: designed and distributed a structured survey targeting Medicine, Pharmacy, and Medical Dentistry students and residents; collected 119 responses (60 Medicine, 37 Dental Medicine, 22 Pharmacy) across all study years, from 2nd year to residency.
- ▶ Data Analysis: cleaned and analyzed the dataset in Power BI to surface content-format preferences, budget sensitivity, and the biggest pain points reported by students in their current studies.
- ▶ Key findings: recorded video lessons were the top-requested format (74% of respondents), ahead of PDF summaries, live Zoom/Meet sessions, Telegram/WhatsApp support groups, and QCM exercises; most students (51/119) could commit 2,000–5,000 DA per training, with about 20% able to pay only for free content.
- ▶ Marketing Strategy: translated findings into HSam Medico's format mix (video-first, supported by PDFs and QCM), specialty-specific course tracks (Medicine / Pharmacy / Dentistry), and an accessible pricing structure aligned with students' real budget capacity.
- ▶ Directly informed the go-to-market and content roadmap for HSam Academy's expansion into the medical education vertical.

Medical AI Chatbot : Contributed to fine-tuning a large language model using LoRA/PEFT for domain-specific medical dialogue, applying prompt engineering and evaluation on healthcare QA benchmarks.
